Dear Families:

As we near the start of our Winter Break, I want to reach out to you to share some information from Fraser Health, as well as to extend my gratitude and very best to you and your children over the holiday season.

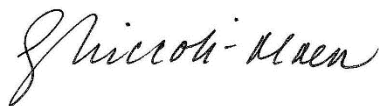

The Fraser Health Authority has asked school districts in the region to share with families the attached letter regarding school exposure notifications and current public health orders over the holidays. They will keep sending letters over the break regarding school exposure notifications. We are committed to continuing to work closely with them: sharing information to support contact tracing, as well as getting information out to families on their behalf. While letters issued to families from Fraser Health will continue, kindly note that school staff will not be in their buildings during the break. Please contact the health authority directly with any questions you may have at the phone number provided in their letters (Fraser Health COVID-19 Call Centre: 604-918-7532).

It goes without saying that the global pandemic has disrupted our lives: COVID-19 has brought worry, uncertainty, frustration and sorrow for so many. As a school district, the pandemic has challenged us in ways we never imagined. Yet with your support, school communities have found imaginative ways to turn the challenges faced into opportunities: connecting, creating, learning and supporting both each other and the community. I am incredibly proud of the work and efforts of all, and sincerely appreciative of the partnership of parents and so many others. The will and resolve of this community continue to inspire me.

Throughout the difficulties, students have found ways to spark joy and hope with toy drives, holiday hampers, virtual winter concerts and jingle bell walks. The kindness, generosity, and compassion in our community leaves little doubt about our ability to persevere and emerge from this together.

However you celebrate this holiday season, may it be a peaceful, healthy and hopeful one. I wish you and your loved ones all the very best.

With warmest wishes,

Gina Niccoli-Moen, Superintendent
