In celebration of the 25th year of Black History Month in Canada, students from participating school districts are invited to a Zoom call to see an official address by the Honourable Jean Augustine. The first Black woman to be elected as a Member of Parliament, she is responsible for securing unanimous legislative support for her historic motion that led to February being designated Black History Month in Canada.

Kamika Williams, the chairperson of the Anti-Racism Coalition of Vancouver – the organization that began the Black T-Shirt initiative this year – is the keynote speaker. The agenda will include two spoken word artists and a Black student panel representing a number of Metro Vancouver school districts.
