

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES #2.20

COMMUNITY USE OF SCHOOLS: SERVING AND CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

BACKGROUND

The Board subscribes to the basic principle that the community should have access to school facilities for a wide variety of purposes. It appreciates that the serving and consumption of alcoholic beverages is appropriate for some of these purposes but recognizes the potential for abuse that exists wherever alcoholic beverages are made available.

Provided those alcoholic beverages are served and consumed in a manner exemplary for the community at large, including students; and provided that all relevant regulations are strictly adhered to, the Board is prepared to sanction the use of alcoholic beverages in school facilities under certain circumstances.

THERE SHALL BE NO CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES UPON PROPERTIES OWNED OR OPERATED BY THE BOARD WITHOUT PRIOR WRITTEN PERMISSION FROM THE BOARD.

OBJECTIVES

To make school and ancillary facilities available for community use under terms consistent with widely held Community standards.

REGULATIONS

1. Applications

Applications to serve alcoholic beverages in school or ancillary facilities:
